

Design Requirements

Animated Short Film – Voice Over Script

Subject: Cinderella

Name: Merola Akram Milad

ID: 221050186

Group: 3 (1:3)

Tools & Technologies Used

Gemini: Used for generating visual concepts and images.

Meta AI: Used for converting generated images into video sequences.

Elevenlabs: Used for creating and processing audio

CapCut: Used for editing, timing, and final video composition.

Script:

Long ago, in a peaceful kingdom filled with magic and dreams,
there lived a kind young girl named Cinderella.
even when life treated her unfairly.

Every morning, Cinderella woke up before sunrise to clean the house and finish her chores.

She worked quietly, never complaining,
and always believed that kindness mattered.

Her stepmother and stepsisters were cruel.

They treated her like a servant
and laughed at her dreams.

Still, Cinderella remained patient and hopeful.

One day, a royal messenger arrived with exciting news.

The King announced a grand ball at the palace.

All young ladies in the kingdom were invited to attend and meet the Prince.

Cinderella dreamed of going to the ball,

even if only for one night.

But her stepmother refused to let her go and left her behind, heartbroken and alone.

That evening, Cinderella sat in the garden beneath the stars.

Tears filled her eyes as she whispered her wish,

hoping that something magical might happen.

Suddenly, a warm glowing light filled the air.

The Fairy Godmother appeared, smiling kindly.

She reminded Cinderella that dreams do come true for those who believe.

With a wave of her wand, magic surrounded Cinderella.

Her torn dress became a beautiful sparkling gown,

and glass slippers appeared on her feet.

But the magic would end at midnight.

Cinderella arrived at the palace like a dream.

Everyone stopped and stared in amazement.

The Prince noticed her at once and asked her to dance.

They danced together as if time stood still.

For the first time in her life,

Cinderella felt truly seen and happy.

Suddenly, the clock began to strike midnight.
Cinderella ran from the palace,
leaving behind one glass slipper on the stairs.
The Prince searched the entire kingdom,
carrying the slipper and refusing to give up.
When he finally reached Cinderella's home,
the slipper fit her perfectly.
Cinderella's kindness changed her destiny forever.
She and the Prince were united,
and she never forgot where she came from.
And so, this story reminds us that hope, patience, and a kind heart